

LLM EXAMINATION STATUTES LIST 2018– 19

Statutes and other Documents permitted in the Examination Room

There follows a consolidated list of statutes or other documents which candidates in the LLM Examination 2019 may, under the conditions laid down in the Regulations, bring into the examination room.

Candidates may bring in an unannotated copy of the official statute or statutory instrument and/or a copy of any other material as listed below. With the exception of Open Book examinations, candidates may use underlining and/or coloured highlight markers to annotate materials taken into the examination, but all other forms of personal annotation on statutes or other materials permitted to be taken into the examination are strictly forbidden. Markers in the form of plastic tags to flag material are permitted, provided that tags are no wider than 2 cm, are attached firmly to the relevant pages, contain no more than two words of identification, and are visible when volumes are closed.

Any paper that does not appear on the list below is a CLOSED BOOK EXAM.
