Queen Mary University of London
Financial Assistance Fund guidance notes
2014-2015

NB: All documents submitted must be photocopies
Who can apply for the funds and how will I be assessed?

Financial assistance funding has been provided to help students who are experiencing financial hardship; it is particularly used:

• to assist those who need extra financial help to meet particular costs which are not being met from statutory (or other) sources of funding

• to provide emergency payments for unexpected crises

• to intervene in cases where a student may be considering leaving Queen Mary because of financial problems

The fund cannot help you to pay any tuition fees you are liable for. You will need to take out student loans to cover these or show that you have made adequate provision to pay these.

In order to apply for the fund you must prove that you have made reasonable provision to support yourself through your course at Queen Mary, those who are eligible must have taken out full maintenance funding from the UK government and have made use of any overdraft facilities available to you.

All UK students and EU Undergraduates
Your application will be treated either as a ‘standard’ claim or a ‘non-standard’ claim, or as both. We will assess ‘standard’ applications under an ‘additional need’ method that looks at the difference between your accepted reasonable expenditure and your expected income. If you have unforeseen circumstances your application can then also be assessed under a ‘non-standard’ assessment, this is when you will need to provide us with details of your circumstances.

EU Postgraduate and all International students
The fund is provided to assist with short-term and urgent situations only; it cannot provide the main support for your costs. You should therefore explain how you would normally have met your costs and why this funding is currently unavailable. Please also explain what steps you have taken, where possible, to resolve the situation yourself and how long you expect to be in financial difficulties. These applications will be treated as ‘non-standard’.

Priority groups
The fund is there to help any eligible student who has a particular financial need but we cannot meet every application we receive and we cannot always meet all of the costs that you might apply for. Priority is given to certain groups of students when deciding how to allocate the funding. These include:

• Students with children (especially lone parents)
• Disabled students (especially where the Disabled Students’ Allowance is unable to meet particular costs)
• Students who have entered higher education from care
• Undergraduates in the final year of their study or those close to finishing their postgraduate qualification

Students interrupting study or re-sitting out of attendance
If you have not permanently withdrawn from your studies, and you intend to return after your time out, you are eligible to apply for help from the Fund during your time out. This will be a ‘non-standard’ assessment so please provide details of your current situation.
Students studying abroad
Students spending a semester or a year abroad as part of their course are still eligible to apply to the fund.

NHS Funded Students
Students who are studying on an NHS funded degree are eligible to apply to the fund.

Processing ‘standard’ applications
A standard award can help to meet general living costs associated with being a student such as living costs like accommodation, food and utility bills and with course-related costs such as childcare, travel and books.

To ensure that all students are treated fairly certain figures are ‘assumed’, these include income and expenditure.

For undergraduate students an assumed income of £1814 per year for full year students and £605 for final year students is used. This assumes income from a number of sources, including part time work, additional support from your parents or partner, bank overdraft, savings etc.

For postgraduate students a weekly assumed income of £208 per week is used. For students who have children or those who are unable to work due to disability the amount of £172 per week is used.

Assumed expenditure is based on based on state benefit amounts for general living costs such as food and usual household costs, including utility bills. The relevant amounts vary based on your circumstances, they are as follows:

- Single student - £118 per week
- Student with a partner - £160 per week
- Lone parent - £118 per week plus £69 for each child

Processing ‘non-standard’ applications
If you have exceptional or unforeseen costs and you are in financial hardship as a result of these costs then you may be eligible for a non-standard award. Some examples of the circumstances where non-standard awards have been made are as follows:

- repairs to essential household equipment
- prescription costs for students on continuing medication
- help with priority debts
- emergency situations, such as travel costs due to family illness or bereavement
- set up costs if re-housed in unfurnished accommodation
- set up costs for students expecting a baby for the first time
- students who are out of attendance but who need to retake exams
- students who are eligible for benefits over the summer vacation can apply for help to cover costs during the first three weeks of September when waiting for their student loan payment
- Summer vacation help for care leavers or Foyer students

These are only examples; if you feel your circumstances are exceptional you should apply.
How and when to apply

However in some cases we made need to defer your application beyond four weeks to deal with particular circumstances. If this applies, we will let you know in advance.

Requesting a copy of your assessment

If you would like a breakdown of how we calculated your award, you can ask for an explanation by emailing bursaries@qmul.ac.uk and you will receive a breakdown of figures used and an explanation in writing within ten working days of the date of your request.
How to appeal

If you are not satisfied with the decision and would like your application to be reconsidered on the basis that you have further information which you did not disclose with your original application you may do so by submitting your documentation to bursaries@qmul.ac.uk within fourteen days of the date of the decision.

- Plan for extra expenditure such as start of year costs, special occasions, family birthdays, etc
- If you need to borrow money, use only interest free overdraft facilities
- Get a student bank account if you have not already got one. Keep your bank statements and check through them as they arrive

- Join NUS and take advantage of the discounts available to students
- Try to be economical with utility services, such as heating, electricity and mobile phones to avoid running up large bills
